

Turning History's Pages

- 1875 William H. Bennett, MD, founder, enlisted the help of the Children's Seashore House of Atlantic City to establish St. Christopher's Hospital of Philadelphia
- 1875 (NOVEMBER 30) St. Christopher's Hospital opened its doors as a charitable ambulatory pediatric clinic located at 552 Dauphin Street
- 1886 St. Christopher's was the first hospital in the region to offer neonatal care to critically ill infants
- 1890 St. Christopher's added a second building to its location, the Huntingdon Building, which housed 43 beds
- 1896 The hospital acquired its first ambulance – a horse-drawn carriage
- 1906 The hospital established a school for cadet nurses offering a one-year course in caring for sick children
- 1910 The hospital acquired a motorized ambulance
- 1937 After growing nearly three-fold, the hospital opened the Bromley Building
- 1940 Established the nation's first child-life/play therapy program housed in a children's medical center
- 1959 Established the largest cystic fibrosis center for children on the East Coast
- 1962 The 146-bed Morris Pavilion, named for C. Christopher Morris who served on the hospital's board from 1915-1971, became the new hospital building
- 1963 The clinical research center opened
- 1968 Its first open heart surgical case was performed
- 1971 Became the first hospital in the US to establish a tracheotomy unit for infants and children. Surgeons also performed the Delaware Valley's first pediatric kidney transplant this year
- 1984 Established the first pediatric burn center between Boston and Washington, DC
- 1984 St. Christopher's outgrew its quarters. New site identified on Erie Avenue at Front Street.
- 1985 Performed the Delaware Valley's first pediatric liver transplant and the first pediatric heart transplant
- 1987 Performed the Delaware Valley's first combined kidney/liver transplant
- 1989 Became the first hospital in the world to use oxygen-rich liquid ventilation to help premature newborns breath
- 1990 Became the first hospital in the Delaware Valley to use electrical mapping to locate and remove a brain tumor in a pediatric patient
- 1990 (JUNE 23) Entire hospital operations moved to Erie Avenue at Front Street location, which housed 183 beds
- 1993 Performed the Delaware Valley's first pediatric split-liver transplant and the first living-related donor liver transplant
- 1993 Performed a heart transplant on a the Delaware Valley's youngest patient – a 4-day-old infant
- 1993 Became the first hospital in the Delaware Valley to use cultured epithelial autografting to help stimulate skin growth on children with severe burns and epidermal abnormalities
- 1995 Became the first hospital in the Delaware Valley to offer grief support group to all children from the Delaware Valley
- 1998 St. Christopher's Hospital for Children became part of Tenet Health System and the primary pediatric teaching facility for Drexel University College of Medicine
- 2000 The hospital celebrated its 125th anniversary and implements the Gift of Life program. St. Christopher's Pediatric Associates is also formed
- 2001 Hospital was named one of the best pediatric hospitals in the US according to US News & World Report. The ECMO, Spasticity and Blood Conservation programs were begun
- 2002 Hospital was named for a second year in a row as one of the best pediatric hospitals by US News & World Report
- 2003 Hospital received Regional Level 1 Pediatric Trauma center designation. The hospital was named for a third year in a row as one of the best pediatric hospitals by US News & World Report
- 2004 In the year since St. Christopher's began to collaborate with The Eagles Youth Partnership, Eagles Eye Mobile, approximately 1200 children were screened, and close to 800 of them required glasses.
- 2005 St. Christopher's Hospital for Children celebrates 130 years of service Philadelphia Mura Arts Program creates 5 panels of history
- 2006 Grand Opening of the Starlight Starbright Children's Foundation and Hollywood Video Home Theater for patients Ground Breaking for the Newest Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House at St. Christopher's Hospital for Children
- 2007 Maria Delivoria-Papadopoulos, MD, Chief, Division of Neonatal-Perinatal Medicine received The Castle Connolly Medical Ltd. National Physician of the Year Award for Lifetime Achievement
- 2007 Grand Opening of the new 10 bed continuing care nursery and the new minimally invasive surgical suite